O R D E R

On June 7, 2019, the court held an oral argument in the above-captioned protest on protestor's motion for preliminary injunction. For the reasons discussed at the oral argument, protestor's motion for preliminary injunction is DENIED. As agreed to at the oral argument, as a result of the denial, the above captioned protest is DISMISSED, without prejudice. If protestor decides to file a bid protest after the a decision by the GAO, in the interest of judicial economy, such a protest should be assigned to the undersigned, and the Clerk's Office shall waive the protestor's filing fee.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
